DECLARATION OF THOMAS BRUNS IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ATTORNEY FEES/INTERIM ATTORNEY FEES

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, the undersigned, Thomas B. Bruns, Esq., makes the following declaration, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the facts contained herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and that such facts are made based on my personal knowledge:

1. My name is Thomas B. Bruns. I am, and have been, one of the Counsel for Plaintiffs in the above captioned matter.
2. I received a B.S. in Zoology from Miami University in 1987, and my law degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1990. I was admitted to practice law in Ohio in 1990, and in Kentucky in 1993. I have actively practiced law for more than 33 years.
3. I am a named partner with Bruns, Connell, Vollmar & Armstrong, LLP. We employ a total of 11 attorneys and other legal professionals. My firm has offices in Cincinnati, Ohio and Dayton, Ohio.
4. Based on my education, background, experience, and skill, it is my opinion that the hours requested in the fee application for me and my co-counsel were reasonably necessary to the results achieved.

5. The fees requested comport with and are reasonable in light of the factors contained in the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct 1.5 insofar as they accurately reflect the time and labor required in the prosecution of this matter, the difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill required to perform the work properly; they comport with the fees charged by others for similar legal services; and they are appropriate in light of the results obtained.
6. I currently am a member in good standing of the bar in both Ohio and Kentucky. And, I am licensed to practice law in the United States District Courts for the Southern and Northern Districts of Ohio, the Eastern and Western Districts of Kentucky, the D.C. District Court, the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. I have also been admitted to the United States Supreme Court since 2003.
7. I have handled a significant number of cutting edge constitutional matters in federal court, including numerous religious freedom cases. I have more than 30 years of litigation in federal and state court, and I repeatedly have been recognized by various organizations for my achievements as a litigator, most recently being selected by my peers as one of the top 50 civil litigators in Cincinnati. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is my current curriculum vitae that outlines some of that relevant experience.
8. As a consequence of the foregoing experience, Plaintiffs hired me and my firm to be one of their counsel in this matter. In this matter, I joined with Chris Wiest and the Siri & Glimstad firm, as I have in other cases, because I did not have the manpower necessary to litigate a national class action against the United States Government. Tasking between counsel in this matter was handled and assigned based on the relevant background and experience of the counsel involved.

9. In my current practice, I charge clients on a case-by-case basis, depending on the complexity, forum, and difficulty of the litigation.
10. The rate contained in the engagement agreement with Plaintiffs in this matter is consistent with the Rubin rates typically approved in this district.
11. The attorneys in this matter are seeking hourly rates in accordance with the matrix established by a committee established by Judge Rubin (known as the Rubin rates), which has been repeatedly affirmed by judges in this District.<sup>1</sup> As the Sixth Circuit has explained it, the Rubin rates are “a list of pre-calculated billing rates tiered by years of experience” to determine a reasonable rate for the area. Linneman v. Vita-Mix Corp., 970 F.3d 621, 630 (6th Cir. 2020). These rates are adjusted with a 4% per year cost of living adjustment from a base 1983 matrix. QFS Transp., LLC, 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61982; Hunter, No. 1:10-cv-820, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 141297, 2013 WL 5467751, at *17.
12. My hourly rate according to the Rubin matrix is just over $640, and that is the rate I am seeking, which is rounded down slightly.

<sup>1</sup> See, e.g., QFS Transp., LLC v. Huguely, 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61982 (SDOH 2023); Cooley v. Aevum Hotels, LLC, No. 1:21-cv-00798, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 137958, 2022 WL 3042590, at *6 (S.D. Ohio Aug. 2, 2022); Planned Parenthood Sw. Ohio Region v. Ohio Dep't of Health, No. 1:21-cv-00189 (S.D. Ohio Apr. 8, 2021) (Doc. 22); Ball v. Kasich, No. 2:16-cv-282, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 100265, 2020 WL 3050241, at *2 (S.D. Ohio June 8, 2020); Doe v. Ohio, No. 2:91-cv-00464, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 24826, 2020 WL 728276, at *10 (S.D. Ohio Feb. 12, 2020); Gibson v. Forest Hills Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ., No. 1:11-cv-329, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 96112, 2014 WL 3530708, at *6 (S.D. Ohio July 15, 2014); Hunter v. Hamilton Cty. Bd. of Elections, No. 1:10-cv-820, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 141297, 2013 WL 5467751, at *17 (S.D. Ohio Sept. 30, 2013); Georgia-Pacific LLC v. Am. Int'l Specialty Lines Ins. Co., 278 F.R.D. 187, 192 (S.D. Ohio 2010) (citing West v. AK Steel Corp. Retirement Accumulation Pension Plan, 657 F. Supp. 2d 914, 932 n.4 (S.D. Ohio 2009)).

13. It is my opinion, given my background and experience, the difficulty and circumstances of this matter, the quality of the work performed, and similar factors, that the prevailing market rates for civil rights litigation in federal court in the Southern District of Ohio, where this matter was filed, for an attorney with my experience and full circumstances, using the well-established Rubin rates, is $640 per hour.
14. I exercised billing judgment at the time my work was recorded. For instance, I did not record time for all the work I actually performed in this matter. I have reviewed each time entry, and I have made a good faith effort to exclude hours that might be seen to be excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary. Thus, compensation is not sought for all of the work actually performed. All time is recorded contemporaneously with the work that was performed.
15. Attached as Exhibit B is a complete copy of my time entries and bills for the above captioned matter in the District Court, Sixth Circuit, U.S. Supreme Court, and an ancillary matter in the District of Maryland over a subpoena dispute with the Department of Justice.
16. In terms of the general handling of this litigation, Mr. Wiest, Mr. Siri, and I served as lead counsel. As noted above, there was unique experience that each firm brought to the table. A review of the billing entries is consistent with this division of labor. It reveals that Mr. Wiest generally took the lead in drafting more significant pleadings; other counsel drafted certain other filings; the Siri firm generally handled recurring communications with the class, although not exclusively, and there took place review and collaboration from differing experience sets. For instance, I was instrumental in editing and finalizing briefs and general strategy.

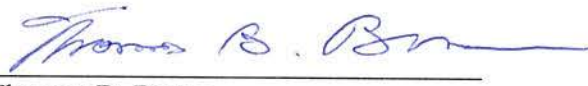

17. In terms of assessing the discovery practice in this case (which is not readily apparent on the docket, but does become more clear from a review of the time entries), the Government directed discovery (at or near the interrogatory limits along with extensive document requests) at the 18 separately named Plaintiffs. In order to address that discovery within the applicable response period, Plaintiffs' counsel divided up the work load in a manner that had six attorneys handling 2-4 clients each, with direct contact for the initial responses; those attorneys were also directly responsible for obtaining responsive documents from the clients. Mr. Wiest generated the objections that were generally re-used, all counsel generated responses for the clients for whom they had responsibility and then Mr. Wiest reviewed all final responses before they were served. Each counsel working with their respective clients reviewed all that client's documents for privilege.
18. The Government eventually produced more than 40,000 pages of discovery, in several tranches, and there were multiple deficiency letters – those documents were largely produced on a rolling basis; more senior attorneys were involved in taking a general inventory at a high level, and assessing whether the government complied with the requests; but the tasks of day-to-day and detailed review largely fell to Wendy Cox and Dana Smith with Siri & Glimstad – Ms. Dana Smith as a more junior attorney, and Ms. Cox, a long-time Army Judge Advocate who would be most attuned to identifying the relevant and material documents for use in the case. Together, they would pull “hot documents” that had particular pertinence for our use and those would then be reviewed by the larger team for consideration as to a specific use in the case.

19. Throughout the litigation, all Plaintiffs' counsel generally received emails, phone calls, and documents coming in from class members and putative class members, across the globe, with respect to emerging developments regarding the vaccination mandate and the Air and Space Force's (mis)handling of it, particularly as that (mis)handling impacted them directly.
20. While depositions were never taken or defended, they were noticed, and there were a few false starts with some efforts underway to take those depositions. In addition, there was a significant amount of work involved in considering potential issues for expert witness testimony and considering potential experts to offer relevant opinions.
21. In light of the political climate surrounding the issues in this matter, the size of the Plaintiff class, the number and novelty of legal issues involved, the scope of paper discovery, the potential for significant expert witness testimony and the aggressiveness of the Government Defendants in defending their conduct, the number of hours in my invoice and those of my co-counsel were both reasonable and necessary to properly litigate this matter to a successful conclusion.
22. Also complicating this matter (and increasing the hours) were two parallel appeals in the Sixth Circuit: one on the individual 18 Plaintiff preliminary injunction (Case No. 22-3497) and one on the class-wide preliminary injunction (Case No. 22-3702).
23. In total, my attached invoice reflects total hours spent in this matter of 502.6 hours. Thus, total attorney fee time at $640 per hour (for 502.6 hours) is $321,646. Total expenses are $34, which are for reasonable and customary parking charges to paying clients. The total request, at this time, for my time and firm's expenses is thus $321,698, which is reasonable and appropriate for this matter.

24. These invoices contain time and expenses through April 24, 2024. I reserve the right to supplement this declaration with additional time and expenses spent on the fee application or reply.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, I declare under penalties of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing Declaration is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and that such facts are made based on my personal knowledge.

Executed on April 29, 2024.
